

SERVICE ACADEMY NOMINATIONS

The United States Service Academies provide outstanding opportunities for qualified men and women to receive one of the most respected college educational experiences in the nation. They offer appointments to highly qualified individuals who meet eligibility requirements and show evidence of character, scholarship, leadership, physical aptitude, medical fitness, goals and motivation. Members of Congress are allowed five vacancies at each of the Service Academies. For each vacancy, members of Congress may nominate up to 10 candidates who meet the eligibility requirements established by law. The student remains in one of the vacancy slots until that student graduates.

APPLICANT QUALIFICATIONS

The following are qualifications to be eligible for consideration for nomination through US Senator Kay Hagan:

1. Applicant must be a United States citizen and legal resident of North Carolina.
2. Applicant must be at least 17 years old, but no older than 23 on July 1 of the year he or she enters the academy.
3. Applicant must have high academic standing and participate in extracurricular and/or community activities that demonstrate leadership qualities.
4. Applicant must have received competitive scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or the American College Testing exam (ACT).

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

To be considered for nomination by Senator Hagan, please follow the instructions below carefully.

1. Applicants should visit each Academy's website for their application instructions and requirements.
2. Fully complete the attached Service Academy Nomination Application.
3. Return application and all supporting materials in one large envelope as a single application packet to Senator Hagan's Greensboro office. Please understand – this means that, with the exception of SAT or ACT scores, materials submitted individually will not be accepted. All materials must be postmarked by November 1, 2010 for consideration. Applications missing supporting materials will not be considered for nomination (this includes test scores). Please send to: U.S. Senator Kay R. Hagan, ATTN: Academy Nominations, 701 Green Valley Road, Suite 201, Greensboro, NC 27408.
